The Directors may, if they deem it appropriate, adopt and from time to time change a common seal for the Corporation. Any signing officer may affix the common seal to any instrument requiring the same, but no instrument is invalid merely because the common seal is not affixed thereto.

3.2 Cheques, Drafts and Notes

All cheques, drafts or orders for the payment of money and all notes and acceptances and bills of exchange shall be signed on behalf of the Corporation by such persons (whether or not a director or officer of the Corporation) and in such manner as the Board may from time to time designate.

ARTICLE 4
DIRECTORS

4.1 Number

The Board shall consist of such number of Directors as is fixed by the Articles, or where the Articles specify a variable number, such number of Directors as may be determined from time to time by the Shareholders by ordinary resolution. At one quarter of the Directors shall be resident Canadians.

4.2 Election and Term

All qualified retiring Directors shall be eligible for re-election. A Director's term of office shall be from the date such director is elected or appointed until the close of the first annual meeting of shareholders following such director's election or appointment or until a successor to such director is elected or appointed.

4.3 Procedure for Election of Directors

(a) Nominations

In addition to nomination by shareholder proposal as provided in the Act, and subject to clause 4.3(b), candidates for the position of Director may be nominated in either of the following ways:

- (i) the Directors may nominate candidates (who may include themselves) by including the name of the proposed candidates in the notice or information circular which is distributed to the shareholders prior to each Annual Meeting or other General Meeting at which Directors are to be elected; or
- (ii) any shareholder holding not less than 5% of the shares entitled to be voted at an Annual Meeting or other General Meeting at which Directors are to be elected, in person or by proxy or representative (where the shareholder is a body corporate or association) may nominate a candidate at such meeting.

- (b) Where Directors are to be elected by the holders of a particular category of shares or by particular persons, nominations shall be put forward in accordance with the provisions which entitle the said holders or persons to elect Directors, or if there are no such provisions, as provided in clause 4.3(a).

- (c) Close of Nominations

At every Annual Meeting or other General Meeting at which Directors are to be elected, the chairman of the meeting shall call for nominations from the floor and shall allow a suitable time for nominations to be made.

Once all nominations have been made from the floor, or if after a suitable time has been allowed no such nominations are made, the chairman of the meeting shall declare nominations closed, and thereafter no further nominations for the position of Director may be made from the floor at that General Meeting.

4.4 Appointment of Directors

If the Articles provide that the Directors may appoint additional Directors between Annual General Meetings, a separate resolution of the Directors shall be taken in respect of each person nominated for appointment as an additional Director, unless all of the Directors present at the meeting of Directors where the matter is discussed agree to a resolution being taken for the simultaneous appointment of several Directors.

4.5 Expenses

Directors shall be reimbursed for all expenses properly incurred by them in the discharge of their functions. The Board may establish reasonable expense allowances to cover the said expenses, and Directors need not, subject to the discretion of the Board, produce proof of having incurred the said expenses in order to claim such allowances.

4.6 Directors in Other Capacities

Directors may be employed by the Corporation in any other capacity and are entitled to be remunerated for services so rendered.

4.7 Majority Voting

- (a) Uncontested Election

For the purpose of this Section 4.7, an "uncontested election" of Directors means an election where the number of nominees for Directors is equal to the number of directors to be elected.

- (b) Forms of Proxy

The forms of proxy circulated in connection with a meeting of the Corporation's shareholders at which an uncontested election of Directors is to be conducted shall provide the Corporation's shareholders with the ability to vote in favour of, or to withhold from voting for, each director nominee individually.

(c) Resignation

If the number of votes withheld for a particular Director nominee is greater than the number of votes in favour of such nominee, the Director nominee shall be required to immediately tender an offer of his or her resignation to the Chairman of the Board following the applicable meeting of the Corporation's shareholders. Following receipt of such an offer of resignation, the Board, or a committee of the Board, shall consider whether or not to accept the offer of resignation. The Board, or a committee of the Board, shall consider whether any exceptional circumstance exist in considering whether or not to accept an offer of resignation from a Director pursuant to this clause 4.7(c). The Board must accept an offer of resignation absent exceptional circumstances. Within 90 days following the applicable meeting of the Corporation's shareholders, the Board shall make its decision, having considered the recommendation of a committee of the Board, if applicable. The resignation will be effective when accepted by the Board. In considering the recommendation of a committee of the Board, if applicable, the Board will review the factors considered by such committee and such additional information and factors that the Board considers to be relevant. If an offer of resignation is accepted, the Board may appoint a new Director to fill any vacancy created by the resignation or reduce the size of the Board.

(d) Participation in Meetings

Any Director who tenders his or her offer of resignation for consideration pursuant to clause 4.7(c) shall not be permitted to participate in any meeting of the Board, or any meeting of a committee of the Board, at which his or her offer of resignation is to be considered. If the inability of any such Director to participate in a meeting of a committee of the Board would result in a loss of quorum, then such committee shall not consider the offer of resignation and the Board shall consider whether or not to accept the offer of resignation without a recommendation from such committee. If the inability of any such Director to participate in any meeting of the Board would result in a loss of quorum, then any such Director shall be counted for the purpose of determining whether the Board has a quorum but any such Director shall not be permitted to vote at such meeting.

(e) News Release

Promptly following the decision of the Board to accept, or not to accept, an offer of resignation pursuant to clause 4.7(c), the Corporation shall a news release with the Board's decision, a copy of which news release must be provided to the Toronto Stock Exchange, or to any exchange upon which the Corporation's common shares are listed, if required by such exchange. The duly appointed representative of a body corporate or association shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the body corporate or association which he represents at a General Meeting, and in respect of notice and adjournment of General Meeting (except the power to appoint a proxy), as that body corporate or association could exercise if it were an individual shareholder present at the General Meeting. Such representative shall when present at any General Meeting count for all purposes and shall have the same rights as a member personally present at the General Meeting holding those shares which are held by the body corporate or association. 9.15 Voting

Every question submitted to a General Meeting shall be decided in the first instance by a show of hands.

9.16 Declaration of Result of Vote

Unless a ballot is demanded as provided in the Act, the declaration of the chairman that the resolution has been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, and an entry to that effect in the book of proceedings of the Corporation, shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour or against such resolution.

If a ballot is demanded, and subject as provided in clause 9.19, a ballot shall be taken in such manner and at such time and place as the chairman of the General Meeting directs, and either at once or after an interval or adjournment, the result of the ballot shall be deemed to be the resolution of the General Meeting at which the ballot was demanded. The demand for a ballot may be withdrawn. 9.18 Ballot on Election of Chairman

Any ballot duly demanded on the election of a chairman of a General Meeting or on the question of adjournment shall be taken at the General Meeting and without adjournment.

9.19 Business Subsequent to Demand for Ballot

A demand for a ballot shall not prevent a General Meeting from continuing for the transaction of any business other than the question on which a ballot was demanded (except for business the transaction of which depends on the outcome of the ballot).

9.20 Adjournment by Consent

The Chairman of any General Meeting may with the consent of an ordinary resolution adjourn the same from time to time and place to place, subject to compliance with the requirements of the Act regarding notice of adjourned General Meetings. No business shall be transacted at any adjourned General Meeting other than the business left unfinished at the General Meeting from which the adjournment took place.

9.21 Right to Vote and Number of Votes

Subject to any restrictions imposed or privilege conferred on any particular class of shares, at every General Meeting:

- (a) upon a show of hands every shareholder or representative of a body corporate or association present in person and entitled to vote shall have one (1) vote only; and
- (b) upon a ballot every shareholder present in person, and every representative of a body corporate or association, and every person representing a shareholder by proxy, and entitled to vote shall have one vote for every share held or represented by him.

9.22 Form of Proxy

The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing in any usual form.

9.23 Shareholders' Resolution in Writing

A resolution in writing, whether ordinary or special, consented to by all the shareholders without their meeting together, is as valid as if it had been passed at a General Meeting of the members duly called and held, and consent to such resolution may be evidenced by means of several documents in the same form each signed by one or more shareholders, or by means of telegram, telex, telecopier, electronic mail, word processor or any other method of transmitting written material. Any such resolution in writing shall be held to relate back (or forward) to the date therein stated to be the effective date thereof.

9.24 Receipt from Joint Shareholders

Any one of joint shareholders may give a good and sufficient receipt for any dividend, return of capital, bonus or other money, payable to such shareholders jointly.

9.25 Transfers

Transfers of shares may be in any usual form.

9.26 Lien for Indebtedness

Where the Corporation is a corporation which has been continued under the Act, and a lien on partly paid shares issued prior to the said continuance remains in existence after the said continuance, all of the rights of the Corporation to enforce the said lien, or otherwise to recover the monies secured thereby, shall remain enforceable by the Corporation following the said continuance in the same manner as the said rights were enforceable prior to the said continuance.

ARTICLE 10 DIVIDENDS

10.1 Entitlement as at Record Date

A transfer of shares shall not pass the right as against the Corporation to any dividend unless the transfer is registered before the record date in respect of the declaration of such dividend.

10.2 Payment to Persons on Register

The Directors in declaring and paying a dividend shall declare and pay the same to the shareholders of the Corporation as evidenced by the Register on the record date for payment of the dividends, and neither the Directors nor the Corporation shall be responsible to any shareholder who fails to receive a dividend through the inadvertent omission of his name from the Register.

10.3 Manner of Payment; Bonus Shares

The Directors in declaring a dividend may direct payment of such dividend wholly or in part by the distribution of specific assets and in particular of paid-up shares, debentures or debenture stock of the Corporation or of any other corporation or in any one or more of such ways, and the Directors after declaring a dividend may direct that such dividend be applied in paying up shares of the share capital of the Corporation or such debentures or debenture stock as aforesaid and that such paid-up shares, debentures or debenture stock be issued to the shareholders of the Corporation. Where any difficulty arises in making such a distribution the Directors may issue fractions of shares or may altogether ignore fractions of shares, and may fix the value for distribution of such specific assets or any part thereof and may determine that cash payments shall be made to any shareholders in order to adjust the rights of all parties, and may vest any specific assets in trustees upon such trusts for persons entitled to the dividend as may seem expedient to the Directors. The Board may appoint any person to sign on behalf of the persons entitled to participate in a distribution any contract requisite or convenient for giving effect thereto and such appointment and the signature of such person shall be binding on all shareholders.

10.4 Set-off

The Corporation may set off against the dividends payable to any shareholder all sums of money which may be due from him to the Corporation on account of debts, obligations or otherwise.

10.5 Unclaimed Dividends

The Corporation may pay any unclaimed dividends, interest or other sum payable on or in respect of a share into a separate account and any interest accruing on such account shall be for the benefit of the Corporation. Such payment into an account shall not constitute the Corporation a trustee in respect of money paid in, and any such dividend which is unclaimed on the expiry of six years after payment shall be forfeited and shall revert to the Corporation.

10.6 Payment by Cheque to Registered Address

Unless otherwise directed, any dividend or other payment required to be made to a shareholder may be paid by cheque drawn on the bank of the Corporation and sent through the mail to the registered address of the shareholder entitled to it, or in the case of joint holders, to the registered address of that one whose name stands first on the Register in respect of the joint holding; and every cheque so sent shall be made payable to the order of the person to whom it is sent, and in the case of joint holders it may be made payable to the order of all such joint holders or to the order of the one only to whom it is sent.

10.7 No Interest

No dividend shall bear interest against the Corporation.

NOTICES

11.1 Method of Giving Notice

Any notice or other document required by the Act, the Regulations, the Articles or the By-laws, to be sent to any shareholder or to the auditor may be delivered personally or sent by prepaid mail or by telegram, cable, telex, word processor or other electronic means of communication whereby words can be visibly reproduced at a distant point of reception to any such shareholder at his latest address as shown in the records of the Corporation or its transfer agent (and the address shown on the records of the transfer agent, if any, shall be used in preference to the address shown on the records of the Corporation, in case of difference between the two) and to the auditor at his business address.

11.2 Receipt of Notices

A notice shall be deemed to be given when it is delivered personally to any such person or to his address as aforesaid. A notice which is mailed shall be deemed to have been given (even if it is returned as undeliverable) when deposited in a post office or public letter box except that the mails shall not be used for the giving of notice when mail service in Canada is interrupted or threatened to be interrupted, by mail strikes or other industrial disturbance, and instead notice shall in such event be deemed to have been given to all shareholders when the notice is publicized in a newspaper which is distributed in the capital cities of all of the Provinces of Canada. A notice sent by any means of remote electronic communication shall be deemed to have been given when delivered to the appropriate communication company, or its representative, for dispatch, or, if the notice is not sent commercially, when actually transmitted from the sending machine.

11.3 Address for Notice

The Secretary may cause the recorded address of any shareholder, director, officer, auditor or member of a committee of the Board to be entered or changed in accordance with any information reasonably believed by him to be reliable. Any such person may by written notice signed by him and served on the Corporation (or its transfer agent, if any) change his registered address for service of notice.

Where no registered address is shown in the records of the Corporation (or its transfer agent, if any) for a shareholder, notice to such shareholder shall be deemed to have been duly given upon it being posted up in the Registered Office (or records office, if any) of the Corporation.

11.4 Notice to Joint Shareholders

If two or more persons are registered as joint holders of any share, notice given in accordance herewith to one of such persons shall be sufficient notice to all of them.

11.5 Persons Entitled by Death or Operation of Law

Every person who, by operation of law, transfer, death of a shareholder or any other means whatsoever, becomes entitled to any shares, shall be bound by every notice in respect of such shares which prior to the entry of his name on the Register has been duly given to the person from whom he derives his title to such shares.

11.6 Return of Notices

If notices or documents are sent to a shareholder by prepaid mail in accordance with section 11.1 and three consecutive mailings (whether or not of the same notice or document) are returned undeliverable, it shall not be necessary to send any further notice or document to the shareholder until he informs the Corporation in writing of a new address for service of notice.

11.7 Omissions and Errors

The accidental omission to give any notice to any shareholder, officer or auditor or the non-receipt of any notice by any such person, or any error in any notice not affecting the substance thereof, shall not invalidate any action taken at any meeting held pursuant to such notice or otherwise founded thereon.

11.8 Signature on Notices

Unless otherwise specifically provided, notices or documents to be given by the Corporation need not be signed on behalf of the Corporation. If any such notice or document is signed on behalf of the Corporation, the signature may be reproduced in writing (as herein defined).

11.9 Waiver of Notice

Any shareholder, proxyholder, officer, auditor or other person entitled to attend a General Meeting may at any time waive any notice, or waive or abridge the time for any notice, required to be given to him under the Act, the Regulations, the Articles, the By-laws or otherwise, and such waiver or abridgement, whether given before or after the General Meeting or other event of which notice is required to be given, shall cure any default in the giving of or in the time allowed by such notice, as the case may be.

11.10 Deceased Shareholder

Any notice or document delivered or sent by mail or left at the address of any shareholder as the same appears in the Register or posted up in the Registered Office (or records office) as hereinbefore provided, shall, notwithstanding such shareholder being then deceased and whether or not the Corporation has notice of his decease, be deemed to have been duly served on such shareholder and such service shall for all purposes be deemed a sufficient service of such notice or document on his heirs, executors or administrators and on all persons, if any, jointly interested in the shares held by him.

11.11 Notice Period

Where a given number of days' notice or a notice extending over any other period is required to be given, neither the day of service of the notice nor the day for which notice is given shall be counted in such number of days or other period.

11.12 Nature of Business

It shall not be necessary for any notice to set out the nature of the business which is to come before an Annual Meeting unless the same is special business.

11.13 One Notice for Several Meetings; Contingent Notice

A Special Meeting and an Annual Meeting, or a Special and Annual Meeting, may be convened by one notice. It shall be no objection to a notice that it only convenes a General Meeting contingently on a resolution being passed at another General Meeting, or that any business to be dealt with at a General Meeting is only to be dealt with contingently on another resolution being passed at that General Meeting.

ARTICLE 12

BY-LAW NO. 2

A by-law relating generally to the advance notice requirements for the nomination of directors of Pine Cliff Energy Ltd. (“Pine Cliff” or the “Corporation”).

INTRODUCTION

The purpose of this advance notice by-law (the “Advance Notice By-law”) is to establish the conditions and framework under which holders of common shares of the Corporation (“Shareholders”) may exercise their right to submit director nominations, establishing a window within which such nominations must be submitted by a Shareholder to the Corporation prior to any annual meeting of Shareholders or any special meeting of Shareholders at which directors are to be elected, and sets out the information that a Shareholder must include in the notice to the Corporation for such notice to be in proper form, so as to:

- a) promote the orderly conduct of Shareholder meetings; and
 - b) ensure that all Shareholders, whether they are voting by proxy or in person at a meeting of Shareholders, will have adequate time and sufficient information to evaluate potential nominees to the board of directors (the “Board”).
1. Nomination Procedures. Subject only to the Business Corporations Act (Alberta), as amended from time to time (the “Act”), the Articles of Incorporation of Pine Cliff, as amended (the “Articles”), and applicable securities legislation of each relevant province and territory of Canada, as amended from time to time (including the written rules, regulations and forms made or promulgated under any applicable statute and the published national instruments, multilateral instruments, policies, bulletins and notices of the securities commissions and similar regulatory authorities of each province and territory of Canada (collectively, “Applicable Securities Laws”), only persons who are nominated in accordance with the following procedures will be eligible for election as directors of the Corporation at any meeting of the Shareholders at which directors are to be elected. For greater certainty, this Advance Notice By-law does not apply to:
- (a) the appointment, by the Board, of a director to fill a vacancy on the Board; or
 - (b) the appointment, by the Board, of a director or directors between annual meetings of the Shareholders in accordance with the Articles.

Nominations of persons for election to the Board may be made at any annual meeting of Shareholders, or at any special meeting of Shareholders if one of the scheduled items of business for such special meeting is the election of directors. Such nominations will be accepted only if made in the following manner:

- (a) by or at the direction of the Board or an authorized officer of the Corporation, including pursuant to a notice of meeting;
- (b) by or at the direction or request of one or more Shareholders of the Corporation pursuant to a proposal duly made in accordance with the Act, or a requisition of a meeting of the Shareholders duly made in accordance with the Act; or
- (c) by any person (a “Nominating Shareholder”) who:

- (i) at the close of business on the date of that notice to the Secretary of the Corporation provided below in this Advance Notice By-law is given and on the record date for determining shareholders entitled to receive notice of, or to vote at, such meeting (as applicable), is entered in the securities register of the Corporation as a holder of one or more shares carrying the right to vote at such meeting, or who beneficially owns shares that are entitled to be voted at such meeting and who establishes to the satisfaction of the chair of the meeting such beneficial ownership; and
 - (ii) who complies with the notice and other procedures set out below in this Advance Notice By-law.
- 2. Timely and Proper Notice. In addition to any other applicable requirements, for a nomination made by a Nominating Shareholder to be valid and accepted, such Nominating Shareholder must have given timely notice thereof in proper written form to the Secretary of the Corporation at the head office of the Corporation in accordance with this Advance Notice By-law.
- 3. Manner of Timely Notice. To be timely, a Nominating Shareholder's notice to the Secretary of the Corporation must be given:
 - (a) in the case of an annual meeting (including an annual and special meeting) of Shareholders, not less than 30 days prior to the date of the annual meeting of Shareholders; provided, however, that if the annual meeting of Shareholders is to be held on a date that is less than 50 days after the date (the "Notice Date") on which the first public announcement of the date of the annual meeting was made, notice by the Nominating Shareholder must be given not later than the close of business on the tenth (10th) day following the Notice Date; and
 - (b) in the case of a special meeting of Shareholders (which is not also an annual meeting) called for the purpose of electing directors (whether or not called for other purposes), not later than the close of business on the fifteenth (15th) day following the day on which the first public announcement of the date of the special meeting was made.

Each of the notice periods set out in Sections 3(a) and 3(b) above shall be reset if the meeting is adjourned or postponed, and for this purpose the Notice Date shall be the date of the first public announcement of the adjournment or postponement.

- 4. Proper Form of Notice. To be in proper written form, a Nominating Shareholder's notice to the Secretary of the Corporation must set out:
 - (a) as to each person whom the Nominating Shareholder proposes to nominate for election as a director:
 - (i) the name, age, business address and residential address of the person;

available and shall have occurred as of the date of the Notice) and as of the date of such notice;

- (iv) any other information relating to the person that would be required to be disclosed in a dissident's proxy circular in connection with solicitations of proxies for the election of directors pursuant to the Act or Applicable Securities Laws (or both); and
- (v) a duly completed personal information form in the form prescribed by the principal stock exchange on which the securities of the Corporation are listed for trading; and

(b) as to the Nominating Shareholder:

- (i) the name and address of such Nominating Shareholder;
- (ii) the number of securities of each class of voting securities of the Corporation or any of its subsidiaries beneficially owned, or over which control or direction (or both) is exercised, directly or indirectly, by such person, alone or together with any joint actor or joint actors, as of the record date for the meeting (if such date shall then have been made publicly available and shall have occurred as of the date of the Notice) and as of the date of such notice;
- (iii) full particulars of any agreement, arrangement or understanding (including any derivative or short positions, profit interests, options, warrants, convertible securities, stock appreciation or similar rights, hedging transactions, and borrowed or loaned shares) that has been entered into as of the date of the notice by, or on behalf of, such Nominating Shareholder, whether or not such instrument or right shall be subject to settlement in underlying securities of the Corporation, the effect or intent of which is to mitigate loss to, manage risk or benefit of share price changes for, or increase or decrease the voting power of, such Nominating Shareholder with respect to securities of the Corporation;
- (iv) full particulars of any proxy, contract, arrangement, agreement, understanding or relationship pursuant to which such Nominating Shareholder has a right to vote or to direct or to control the voting of any shares of the Corporation;

- (vi) any other information relating to such Nominating Shareholder that would be required to be disclosed in a dissident's proxy circular or other filings required to be made in connection with solicitations of proxies for election of directors pursuant to the Act or any Applicable Securities Laws.

References to Nominating Shareholder in this Section 4 shall be deemed to refer to each Shareholder that nominates a person for election as director in the case of a nomination proposal where more than one Shareholder is involved in making such nomination proposal.

5. Consent to Serve as Director. The notice provided under Section 4 must be accompanied by the written consent of each nominee to being named as a nominee and to serve as a director, if elected.
6. Other Information. The Corporation may require any proposed nominee to furnish such other information as the Corporation may request to (a) determine the eligibility of such proposed nominee to serve as an independent director of the Corporation or that could be material to a reasonable shareholder's understanding of the independence, or lack thereof, of such proposed nominee, or (b) satisfy the requirements of applicable stock exchange rules.
7. Notice to be Updated. In addition, to be considered timely and in proper written form, a Nominating Shareholder's notice must be promptly updated and supplemented, if necessary, so that the information provided or required to be provided in such notice shall be true and correct as of the record date for the meeting.
8. Eligibility for Election. No person shall be eligible for election as a director of the Corporation unless nominated in accordance with the provisions of this Advance Notice By-law; provided, however that nothing in this Advance Notice By-law shall be deemed to preclude discussions by a Shareholder (as distinct from the nomination of directors) at a meeting of Shareholders of any matter in respect of which such Shareholder would have been entitled to submit a proposal pursuant to the provisions of the Act. The chair of the meeting shall have the power and duty to determine whether a nomination was made in accordance with the procedures set out in this Advance Notice By-law and, if any proposed nomination is not in compliance with such foregoing provisions, to declare that such nomination is defective and cannot be accepted. If such a determination is made, the person will not be considered to be duly nominated for purposes of the applicable meeting and will not be eligible for election as a director.
9. Notwithstanding any provision of this Advance Notice By-law, if the number of directors to be elected at a meeting of the Shareholders is increased, with effect after the date by which the Nominating Shareholder's notice would otherwise be required to be given hereunder in order to be effective for the applicable meeting of Shareholders, a notice with respect to nominees for the additional directorships required hereunder shall be considered timely if it is given no later than the close of business on the tenth (10th) day following the date on which the first public announcement of such increase was made by the Corporation.
10. Terms. For the purposes of this Advance Notice By-law "public announcement" shall mean disclosure in a news release disseminated through a national news service in Canada, or in a document publicly filed by the Corporation (under its profile) on the System for Electronic Document Analysis and Retrieval at www.sedar.com.
11. Means of Giving Notice. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the by-laws, notice given to the Secretary of the Corporation pursuant to this Advance Notice By-law may only be given by personal delivery, facsimile transmission or by email (at such email address as stipulated from time to time by the Secretary of the Corporation for the purposes of this Advance Notice By-law), and shall be deemed to have been given and made only at the time it is served by personal delivery, received by email (at the address as aforesaid) or sent by facsimile transmission (provided that receipt of confirmation of such transmission has been received) to the Secretary of the Corporation at the address of the head office of the Corporation; provided that if such delivery or electronic communication is made on a day that is not a business day or later than 5:00 p.m. (local time at the head office of the Corporation) on a day that is a business day, then such delivery or electronic communication shall be deemed to have been made on the first subsequent day that is a business day.

12. Waiver of Notice Requirements. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Board may, in its sole discretion, waive any requirement in this Advance Notice By-law or may delegate such discretion to the Chair of any meeting of the Shareholders.
13. Inconsistencies with Other By-Laws. In the event any provision of any other by-law of the Corporation now in force is inconsistent with or in conflict with any provision of this Advance Notice By-law, the provisions of this Advance Notice By-law will govern and prevail to the extent necessary to remove the inconsistency or conflict.
